

MEDIA WORKSHOPS

National Stadium – Warsaw, Poland

Detailed Programme

GREEN: Open to all developing country journalists (live webcast)

RED: Open to UNFCCC sponsored journalists only

Monday, 11 November 2013
09:00 – 10:00 Press Conference Room 2, Level -2, Zone E6	Welcome and Introduction <ol style="list-style-type: none">1. Welcome and introduction by John Kilani, Director of the Sustainable Development Mechanisms Programme, UNFCCC2. Overview of the workshop schedule (Iriní Roumboglou, UNFCCC)3. Logistical and support details and self-introductions (Hillary McBride, UNFCCC)
15:00 – 16:00 Press Conference Room 2, Level -2, Zone E6	Media Workshop 1: Climate Finance Panel: <ul style="list-style-type: none">• Ms. Dechen Tsering, Programme Coordinator, Finance, Technology and Capacity-Building, UNFCCC• Diann Lynne-Black, co-chair of the Standing Committee on Finance• Hela Cheikhrouhou, Executive Director of the Green Climate Fund Climate finance is one of the primary elements of this year's negotiations. Finance and technology support is needed to ensure that developing countries green their economies and build resilience. The panel will provide an overview of the current landscape of climate finance as it relates to the negotiations and discuss work underway.
16:00 – 17:00 Media Team Room Media Centre Level -1, Zone C2	COP 19 Daily Briefing Discussion of progress in the negotiation in Warsaw with John Hay, Media Relations Officer, UNFCCC (Lead on general matters); Iriní Roumboglou and Hillary McBride, Communications Officers, UNFCCC (Leads on market-based approaches).
Tuesday, 12 November 2013
09:00 – 10:00 Press Conference Room 2, Level -2, Zone E6	Media Workshop 2: Global Carbon Markets Speakers: <ul style="list-style-type: none">• Dirk Forrister, President and CEO, International Emissions Trading Association (IETA)• Jeff Swartz, International Policy Director, IETA Even as the outcome of the international climate negotiations remains unclear, policymakers in a growing number of countries are adopting and implementing market-based measures to limit carbon pollution. IETA will provide an overview of worldwide action in this area referencing 18 case-studies created to highlight existing and emerging systems. *IETA will also use this workshop to officially launch the 2013 Greenhouse Gas Market Report

16:00 – 17:00 Media Team Room Media Centre Level -1, Zone C2	COP 19 Daily Briefing Discussion of progress in the negotiation in Warsaw with John Hay, Media Relations Officer, UNFCCC (Lead on general matters); Irini Roumboglou and Hillary McBride, Communications Officers, UNFCCC (Leads on market-based approaches).
Wednesday, 13 November 2013
10:00 – 11:00 Press Conference Room 2, Level -2, Zone E6	Media Workshop 3: Emission Trading/CDM/JI Speakers: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Hillary McBride, Communications Officer , UNFCCC • Irini Roumboglou, Communications Officer, UNFCCC This session will follow-up from the session on carbon markets the day before and focus on how emission trading works, what exactly is the clean development mechanism (CDM) and joint implementation (JI), and what is on the table regarding these items at the COP19 negotiations.
16:00 – 17:00 Media Team Room Media Centre Level -1, Zone C2	COP 19 Daily Briefing Discussion of progress in the negotiation in Warsaw with John Hay, Media Relations Officer, UNFCCC (Lead on general matters); Irini Roumboglou and Hillary McBride, Communications Officers, UNFCCC (Leads on market-based approaches).
Thursday, 14 November 2013
10:00 – 11:00 Press Conference Room 2, Level -2, Zone E6	Media Workshop 4: IPCC Report Speakers: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Jonathan Lynn, Head, Communications and Media Relations, Secretariat of the IPCC • Pauline Midgley, Head of the IPCC Working Group I Technical Support Unit • Simon Allen, Drafting Author, Working Group I Fifth Assessment Report Summary for Policymakers The recently released IPCC report tells us in very clear terms that time is running out and that we must accelerate all our efforts at mitigation if we want to avoid the highest cost of adaptation. This session will provide an overview of the findings of the 2013 IPCC report.
16:00 – 17:00 Media Team Room Media Centre Level -1, Zone C2	COP 19 Daily Briefing Discussion of progress in the negotiation in Warsaw with John Hay, Media Relations Officer, UNFCCC (Lead on general matters); Irini Roumboglou and Hillary McBride, Communications Officers, UNFCCC (Leads on market-based approaches).
Friday, 15 November 2013
09:00 – 10:00 Press Conference Room 2, Level -2, Zone E6	Media Workshop 5: The Kyoto Protocol's CDM: an agent for progress in developing country climate resilience Speakers: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Dr. Adam Harvey, WHAVE • Tim Morris, World Vision What role can the clean development mechanism (CDM) play in facilitating sustainable development, climate resiliency and climate change mitigation? This session will provide several case-studies of unique CDM projects around the world.

16:00 – 17:00 Media Team Room Media Centre Level -1, Zone C2	COP 19 Daily Briefing Discussion of progress in the negotiation in Warsaw with John Hay, Media Relations Officer, UNFCCC (Lead on general matters); Irini Roumboglou and Hillary McBride, Communications Officers, UNFCCC (Leads on market-based approaches).
Saturday, 16 November 2013
16:00 – 17:00 Media Team Room Media Centre Level -1, Zone C2	COP 19 Daily Briefing Discussion of progress in the negotiation in Warsaw with John Hay, Media Relations Officer, UNFCCC (Lead on general matters); Irini Roumboglou and Hillary McBride, Communications Officers, UNFCCC (Leads on market-based approaches).
Monday, 18 November 2013
09:00 – 10:00 Press Conference Room 2, Level -2, Zone E6	Media Workshop 6: Adaptation Speakers: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> Annett Moehner, Programme Officer, Adaptation, UNFCCC Additional speaker TBC Adaptation to the adverse effects of climate change is vital in order to reduce the impacts of climate change that are happening now and increase resilience to future impacts. The capacity and potential for humans to adapt is unevenly distributed across different regions, and developing countries generally have less capacity to adapt. Therefore, climate change adaptation is especially important in developing countries. This session will highlight the range of issues that are being addressed by Parties at COP 19.
16:00 – 17:00 Media Team Room Media Centre Level -1, Zone C2	COP 19 Daily Briefing Discussion of progress in the negotiation in Warsaw with John Hay, Media Relations Officer, UNFCCC (Lead on general matters); Irini Roumboglou and Hillary McBride, Communications Officers, UNFCCC (Leads on market-based approaches).
Tuesday, 19 November 2013
12:00 – 13:00 Press Conference Room 2, Level -2, Zone E6	Media Workshop 7: Momentum for Change – Women’s leadership on climate change; financing for climate-friendly investment Speakers: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> Luis Davila, Programme Officer, Momentum for Change, UNFCCC Sara Marchildon, Associate Communications Officer Momentum for Change, UNFCCC Lighthouse project participants During this session, two pillars of the Momentum for Change initiative will be introduced: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> Women for Results showcases women-led activities that address climate change. These activities demonstrate measurable impact on the ground, and the potential for replicability and scalability at the local, national and international levels. Financing for Climate-friendly Investment recognizes successful financial innovations for adaptation and climate mitigation. It showcases activities which represent successful financing mechanisms and approaches to support climate change adaption and mitigation activities.
15:00	No daily briefing due to the beginning of the high-level segment
Wednesday, 20 November 2013

09:00 – 10:00 Press Conference Room 2, Level -2, Zone E6	Media Workshop 8: Updates on the New Market Mechanism (NMM), the Framework for Various Approaches (FVA) and Non Market Approaches (NMA) Speakers: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Lucy Naydenova, Team Lead, Negotiation Support, UNFCCC • Additional speakers TBC This session will address the alphabet soup of UNFCCC negotiations surrounding sustainable development mechanisms. It will provide an overview and history of the NMM, NMA and FVA and discuss outcomes and expectations for COP 19 negotiations.
16:00 – 17:00 Media Team Room Media Centre Level -1, Zone C2	COP 19 Daily Briefing Discussion of progress in the negotiation in Warsaw with John Hay, Media Relations Officer, UNFCCC (Lead on general matters); Irini Roumboglou and Hillary McBride, Communications Officers, UNFCCC (Leads on market-based approaches).
Thursday, 21 November 2013
09:00 – 10:00 Press Conference Room 2, Level -2, Zone E6	Media Workshop 9: Momentum for Change – Urban Poor; ICT Solutions Speakers: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Luis Davila, Programme Officer, Momentum for Change, UNFCCC • Sara Marchildon, Associate Communications Officer Momentum for Change, UNFCCC • Lighthouse project participants During this session, one pillar of the Momentum for Change initiative will be introduced: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Urban Poor celebrates activities which address climate change and improve livelihoods and living conditions in urban areas of developing countries.
16:00 – 17:00 Media Team Room Media Centre Level -1, Zone C2	COP 19 Daily Briefing Discussion of progress in the negotiation in Warsaw with John Hay, Media Relations Officer, UNFCCC (Lead on general matters); Irini Roumboglou and Hillary McBride, Communications Officers, UNFCCC (Leads on market-based approaches).
Friday, 22 November 2013
10:00 – 11:00 Press Conference Room 2, Level -2, Zone E6	Media Workshop 10: Loss & Damage: Perspectives on climate risk management, insurance and livelihood security Speakers: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Dr. Koko Warner, Scientific director, CDKN Loss and Damage in Vulnerable Countries Initiative, UN University • Additional speakers TBC Loss and damage is always a hot topic at the UNFCCC negotiations. How do the effects of climate change lead to loss and damage amongst vulnerable populations? This session will present recent findings in the context of loss & damage, insurance and risk management, addressing slow-onset events, livelihood security and climate change loss & damage.
16:00 – 17:00 Media Team Room Media Centre Level -1, Zone C2	FINAL COP 19 Daily Briefing Discussion of progress in the negotiation in Warsaw with John Hay, Media Relations Officer, UNFCCC (Lead on general matters); Irini Roumboglou and Hillary McBride, Communications Officers, UNFCCC (Leads on market-based approaches).