Ref. DoE/Int.Con./CDM/2011/06/10

Date: 31 January, 2013

Sub.: Host Country Approval of CDM Project “Programme for Promotion of Access to Domestic Biogas in Rural Bangladesh”

Your Ref: Your e-mail; dated 30 January, 2013.

Our Ref: DoE/Int.Con./CDM/2011/06/06; dated 18 November, 2012.

Dear Sir,

On behalf of the Designated National Authority (DNA), I am pleased to issue the revised letter on the above mentioned subject and reference. The DNA of Bangladesh has approved “Programme for Promotion of Access to Domestic Biogas in Rural Bangladesh” on 04 November, 2012.

It may be mentioned here that the DNA of Bangladesh confirms:

- The Government of Bangladesh has ratified the Kyoto Protocol on 22 October 2001;
- This is a voluntary participation in the proposed CDM project activities;
- The project contributes to sustainable development of Bangladesh.

It may be further mentioned here that Infrastructure Development Company Limited (IDCOL) is the Coordinating/Managing Entity (CME) of the programme and Grameen Shakti is one of the project participants under the programme.

The DNA assures you to provide all supports in this regard.

Sincerely yours,

(A. M. Monsurul Alam)

Director (Climate Change and Intl. Con.) and Member Secretary, National CDM Committee
