Query on an approved SSC methodology or SSC procedures
1. If you have questions relating to the application of an approved small-scale methodology (AMS) please specify and provide reference to the exact technology/measure below. If you have questions related to procedures for SSC project activities please clarify below:

Question 1

>> I have a specific question regarding the suitability of a project to methodology AMS II H version 3, I intent to develop an (industrial facility) small scale project – with gas engine for power generation and its exhaust (direct) utilized in VAM for chilled water generation. As for my understanding the project is co-generation as simultaneously power and cooling is produced. But the methodology AMS II H version 3 (applicable for industry facility) applies to Combined Heat and Power (CHP) and Combined Cooling, Heating and Power (CCHP) system. This project though cogeneration does not fit under CHP or CCHP category as it is involves Cooling and Power only (CP), hence i seek your guidance whether this project qualifies for this methodology or not.

Question 2

As per the meth II H version 3, emissions due to operation of stand-by equipment should be accounted as project emissions. In a specific situation wherein (Grid + DG set) is the baseline and the project case is (Gas engine + DG set), in both the situations DG is backup. In this context is it appropriate to consider the operation of DG set (project activity backup) in the project emissions since it's the same case as that of the baseline?
